

Country:

Tanzania

Species

Cercocebus sanjei

Conservation Areas

Uzungwa Scarp Nature Reserve

Udzungwa Mountains National Park

Conservation management recommendations across all sites

Implement habitat restoration and forest connectivity

Enhance community education and involvement in the conservation of primates and their habitats

Improve protection efficiency through supporting patrolling in the KCPAs, community or government based.

Surveys to determine population size

Investigate wild meat hunting and consumption

Working with relevant organisations to respond to public health needs of neighboring human populations

Additional management recommendations

Uzungwa Scarp Nature Reserve

Species present:

• Conservation education in communities around KCPAs